Even though I am still Campus Dart League president. I have found myself as temporary CDA president for a short time as well. It is good to be president at times, but 5 years was enough. All the fall leagues are starting up soon. There are many tournaments coming soon. The CDA is all a twitter with busy little things to do. The Bloodshot Open VII in February will be a $6000 tournament this year. We will need a design for the shirts for the Bloodshot. There is a contest. This contest does not mean you have to be a professional screen printer to win. We have a professional screen printer. We need ideas for the shirt, even if you scrawl it out on a piece of paper, that's all we need, we need the concept, not the perfected design. The person who wins will receive all free entries into the Bloodshot Open VII. The contest starts now, and ends as soon as we get a kick ass design. I have designed 3 out of the 4 shirts, because nobody ever offers other designs, so this is your year.

The mailing list is badly outdated, so talk to your friends. Ask them if they got their newsletter, They all will be hard copies, no emails. If they did not, get a hold of us so we can get them on the list. The newsletter is the only way for us to get a hold of all of you. We are always looking for new things to put in the newsletters, Do you have any ideas, or would you like to write an article?

There are two tournaments that put Columbus on the map. They are the Bloodshot and Buckeye Open. I hope you all make a concerted effort to come to both tournaments. Please do not bring mugs either. Neither tournament will let you bring mugs in the dart hall anymore. That law will be strictly enforced by both tournaments. And of course both tournaments will need volunteers to help set-up and tear-down. If you want to help CDA with the Bloodshot, email us at col_darters_assn@yahoo.com. If you want to help COD with the Buckeye Open email Leah Baltz at Libdart@aol.com.

The next tournament is Sept 18th at the Hilliard moose for moose members only. Then Oct 2nd at Ledos is the annual Thirsty City Open. Hope to see you all at all 4 tournaments. Thank you all for your love of the sport
